BOXES OF LOVE

I've got boxes of love for you,
Filled with love enough for two.
I've got boxes and boxes of love for you.
Open one and look inside.
You'll find love that I can't hide.
I've got boxes and boxes of love for you.

I've got trucks of hugs for you.
Put one on when you're feeling blue.
I've got trucks and trucks of hugs for you.
When you need some arms around,
I've got hugs by the pound,
I've got trucks and trucks of hugs for you.

When you need someone to care,
Say the word and I'll be there.
I've got everything you need and it's all for you.
I've got trains and planes and barrels and baskets and cases of kisses, too.
Just enough to last your whole life through.

I've got stacks of I Love You's
Jump on one when you're feeling blue,
I've got stacks and stacks of I Love You's.
When you're caught out in the cold,
I've got tons of hands to hold.
I've got stacks and stacks of I Love You's

When you need someone to care,
Say the word and I'll be there.
I've got everything you need and it's all for you.
I've got trains and planes and barrels and baskets and cases of kisses, too.
Just enough to last your whole life through.

I've got boxes of love for you,
Filled with love enough for two
I've got boxes and boxes of love for you.
Open one and look inside
You'll find love that I can't hide,
I've got boxes and boxes of love for you.
I've got boxes and boxes of love for you.
Oh! I've got boxes and boxes of love for you.
