

NASH AND NELSON

SONGWRITERS

Songs for our times

OUR TEAM

Take me out to the ball game.
Take me out to the crowd.
And what a crowd it is!
On the field, in the stands,
We thousands came from many lands.

Take me out to the ball game.
Take me out to the crowd.
Everyone with a different story.
Yet we're so much the same.
We're American.
Each different, yet so much the same.

Our differences make us stronger.
So our national motto says:
E pluribus unum.
From the many, we are one.
From the many, we are one.

Take me out to the ball game.
Take me out to the crowd.
And what a crowd it is!
On the field, in the stands,
We thousands came from many lands.

From the stands, I watch my brother pitch.
How proud my grandfather would be.
He came from the old country
With nothing but a dream and calloused hands.
I feel him with me in the stands,
Cheering my brother pitch in this new land.

Take me out to the ball game.
Take me out to the crowd.
And what a crowd it is!
On the field and in the stands,
We millions came from many lands.

WWW.NASHANDNELSON.COM